Docket Number: 2:96CR00363-02

LEGAL HISTORY:

On August 1, 1996 the above-named was placed on Supervised Release for a term of 5 years, which commenced on March 12, 2002. Special conditions included a requirement for warrantless search and no possession/access to pager or cellular telephone without permission.

SUMMARY OF COMPLIANCE:

Mr. Escobar has complied with all conditions and special conditions of supervised release, and has not been involved in any further criminal activities. It is the opinion of the probation officer that he has derived maximum benefit from supervision and is not in need of continued supervision.

He has furthered his education and is gainfully employed on a steady basis. He had no prior criminal record before this conviction and his prognosis for not offending in the future is excellent.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is, therefore, respectfully recommended that supervised release in this case be terminated early.
